By signing this form, you are consenting to an examination by Laura Sheehan, D.C.

Dr. Sheehan employs standard chiropractic examination including the following:

- Observation: General assessment and appraisal in all positions
- Inspection: Viewing/looking at your body parts/ Visualization includes general viewing in a standard position, front, back and side. All symptomatic (painful) body parts may be viewed.
- Women may continue wearing their bra in the course of examination unless it obscures visualization/viewing of injured/abnormal parts. Women may request a female observer be present at any time.
- Auscultation: Using the stethoscope to listen for the blood pressure and other body sounds.
- Palpation: This means the doctor will touch you. She will feel for tenderness, heat, swelling, nodularity, laxity of tissues, integrity and abnormality.
- Percussion: Using rubber hammer and tapping on bones or tendons.
- Orthopedic/neurological testing: These are standard tests to access your neuromusculo-skeletal systems.

Notes: You do not have to submit to any examination procedure. Dr. Sheehan would like you to comply to the best of your ability and report changes in your pain. All procedures are accomplished to your tolerance.
